CRAFT Training for Behavioral Health Professionals with Dr. Robert J. Meyers, Ph.D.

Author of "Get Your Loved One Sober: Alternatives to Nagging, Pleading, and Threatening"

DATES: October 10th - 12th, 2017

LOCATION: St. Vincent's Manor Auditorium, Evansville, IN

Learn how to empower your clients to care for themselves while helping their loved ones. Community Reinforcement Approach and Family Training (CRAFT) is a scientifically proven intervention designed to help concerned significant others guide substance abusers into treatment. Dr. Meyers will train behavioral health professionals to teach and counsel clients to utilize the CRAFT intervention process.

The CRAFT method has a 70% success rate in getting substance abusers into treatment!

More information about fees and registration will be coming in June.

FYI: 15 CEU's will be available through Youth First, Inc.
